The Project Management Institute

PMI is the world's largest professional association for Project, Program and Portfolio Management, with more than 400.000 members in over 185 countries. PMI is the global leader in the fields of Project, Program and Portfolio Management and has the experience, knowledge and resources to support your professional career in either of these fields.

To this end PMI publishes integrated Good Practice standards for Project, Program and Portfolio Management, as well as specialized – in depth – standards for Earned Value, Risk Management, Scheduling and Work Breakdown Structures. PMI also offers specific extensions to the PM-BOK, containing sector specific Good Practices for Government and Construction projects.

PMI Netherlands Chapter

The PMI Netherlands Chapter represents PMI in the Netherlands. It is an enthusiastic and energetic chapter that is run by volunteers and strives to deliver maximum value to its members and sponsors.

We do this by organizing frequent events to bring you the experience of practice and the latest developments in the field. We also facilitate networking between our members and the leading organizations in the field of Project, Program and Portfolio Management.

Our mission is to spread the word and show the value of Project, Program and Portfolio Management to the Dutch society at large.

Project Management Maturity

PMI provides standards for defining, assessing and developing both the Project Management Maturity of organizations “Organizational Project Management Maturity Model (OPM3®)” and the individual project manager “Project Manager Competency Development Framework (PMCDF)”.

Membership

The PMI Netherlands Chapter helps you build relationships with other professionals and leading organizations in the field. We facilitate the personal growth of our members through:

- Chapter Meetings with interesting speakers on topics related to Project, Program and/or Portfolio Management
- Workshops
- PMI Netherlands Summit
- Local Interest Workgroups on Program and Portfolio Management, ISO 21500, PMO
- Sponsor Meetings
- PMP Exam Coaching Classes

We provide you the latest Knowledge and trends for Project, Program and Portfolio Management based on the expertise and input from over 400.000 professionals.

As member of PMI you receive the PM Network magazine, PMI today, the Project Management Journal, discounts for credential programs, events and classes and access to mostly free PMI web content, like your own electronic version of the latest PMBOK® Guide and other PMI standards.

Connecting

We facilitate networking between our members via our Chapter Meetings, Sponsor Days, Local Interest Working Groups and our yearly event, the international PMI Netherlands Summit.

During these events we offer you access to the latest developments in the field of Project, Program and Portfolio Management and the opportunity to increase your personal network. Participating in our activities not only enhances your knowledge, it also contributes to acquiring the required PDU's for maintaining your well earned PMI credential.

Awareness

As a chapter we want to advance the professions of project, program and portfolio manager by spreading awareness on general accepted 'Good Practices' and the added value of a professional approach for Project, Program and Portfolio Management. We do this in close cooperation with our members, sponsors and other PMI components.

Support

Whenever there is a need or opportunity we reach out to local governments, universities and colleges, and organizations, ready to offer our support.

If you see or have a need for our support, don't hesitate to contact us. We gladly support you with presentations, materials or contacts in our network.

Join PMI Netherlands Chapter

Join us to get into contact with an enthusiast group of project, program and portfolio managers. We are eager to meet you and share our experience, knowledge and professional network. We can support you on your career path in Project, Program and Portfolio Management.

Whether you are a professional or a starter in the field of Project, Program or Portfolio Management membership of our Chapter aligns you with the international project management community.
